THE WINDERMERE FARM MONTHLY UPDATE

Short and sweet!

Dear valued clients and friends,

I very rarely give a brief makeover of the past months news; however this past month has been hectic to say the least. One of the main reasons being, our Daughter Lisa and son-in-law Dominic Bracks, have been moving into the cottage on Windermere. You can imagine we were all very busy going to and from loaded with furniture in horse floats and Ute's, plus painting anything that didn't move and still are.

Also, we are working hard at present, to have Windermere Farm at its best for the upcoming very special open day on the 16th of September. PLEASE DO NOT MISS this wonderful display of horsemanship by Rob Horne. There will be plenty of sausage and steak sandwiches on the barby, tea, coffee etc etc. Plus pony rides for the children, everybody is welcome, please remember to give numbers by the 10th.

SEPTEMBER 2012

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
30						1
2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29

I have been informing all owners of their horses up and coming races, unfortunately no winners this month but our luck is about to turn as we have, BLACK PIRATE racing tomorrow at Hawkesbury over 1800mts. We trialled him last Monday to toughen him for this event, he trialled well and is on track for Saturday. As long as Grant doesn't make every post a winner I think he will go to the front and stay there!

Another day to look forward to is the 13th back at Hawkesbury when SMART AUSBRED and SACRED JOURNEY will have their first starts back this prep. Both horses should go very close to winning.

Please except my apologies once again for not sending the usual colourful news with all the pictures. Be rest assured, that this next month will be a great and well informed one and I'm sure loads of wonderful pictures will be posted from the open day!
